Cancellation: 1. Purchaser cannot cancel orders under any circumstances without Purchaser first reaching an agreement in writing with Seller covering all Seller's expenses. At a minimum, such an agreement must reimburse the Seller for all expenses incurred (including but not limited to costs of purchased materials), engineering costs, and a reasonable mark-up to cover overhead and profit; cancellation charges shall be, at a minimum, at least 15% of the purchase price of the goods covered by the cancelled orders, altogether defined as Cancellation Fees. Once the first system has been shipped, Purchaser will be notified at least seven days before the next two systems are due to begin fabrication. This process will continue until the final system has been scheduled for fabrication. 2. Notwithstanding Paragraph 1 of this Article, If Purchaser cancels prior to the start of fabrication for units 6 - 8, the Cancellation Fees will be waived. The waiver does not include restocking fees assessed by Seller's 3rd party vendors for purchased materials.
